Grant, Jesse Root, II

1909-1910

[Manhattan Club]

[Youngest son of Ulysses S. Grant, named after his father.]

June 17, 1908.

Mr. Henry Scott Grant,
Washington Club,
New York.

Dear Sir:-

I have received the enclosed notice from the Post Office.

I would be extremely obliged if you would give me your present address, so that our publications can reach you.

As a member of the Society, you should receive the American Journal of Numismatics without cost.

Very truly yours

Secretary.

NEW YORK

The attention of members is called to the provisions regarding fees, dues and membership in the revised By-Laws, as adopted January 17, 1910.

CHARLES PRYER, Treasurer.

CHAPTER III

FEES AND DUES

1. Members elected as Life Members on or before January 17, 1910, shall not be required to pay fees or dues.
2. Honorary and Corresponding Members shall not be required to pay fees or dues.
3. The annual dues of Members shall be Fifteen Dollars, payable in advance. A Member elected at a meeting held after July 1 shall pay half dues for the current year.
4. Any Member of the Society who has, for a period of twenty consecutive years, regularly paid all dues, or who shall pay the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars, may, by resolution of the Council, be relieved from further dues.
5. The dues of Associate Members shall be Five Dollars per annum, payable in advance. An Associate Member elected at a meeting held after July 1 shall pay half dues for the current year.
6. Any Associate Member who has, for a period of twenty consecutive years, regularly paid all dues, or who shall pay the sum of Fifty Dollars, may, by resolution of the Council, be relieved from further dues.
7. Any Member desiring to become an Associate Member shall have the right to do so, upon filing a written notice of such change with the Secretary.
8. Members of all classes shall be entitled, upon qualifying, to receive a membership certificate signed by a majority of the Governors and bearing the seal of the Society, attested by the Secretary; they shall also be entitled to the bronze medal of the Society upon payment of three dollars, or to its silver medal upon payment of six dollars, or to its badge upon payment of such sum as may be fixed from time to time by the Society.
9. The colors of the Society shall be gold, silver and bronze.

CHAPTER IV

MEMBERSHIP

1. Members of all classes in good standing shall be entitled, except as otherwise provided in the Constitution or By-Laws, to the rights and privileges usually accorded, and to the use of the library and cabinets of the Society, under such regulations as are provided relating thereto.
2. Any Member or Associate Member in arrears for more than one year shall not be considered a Member in good standing, and may be dropped from the roll by resolution of the Council.
3. Resignations of Members of all classes shall be made in writing to the Council. A Member or Associate Member presenting his resignation after the third Monday in January shall not be relieved from paying his dues for the current year.
4. Any Society which is an Honorary Member may be represented at any meeting by one duly accredited representative, who shall have the right to vote on behalf of such Society.
5. Corresponding Members and Associate Members shall have all the privileges of the Society except the right to vote and hold office. Honorary Members shall have all the privileges of the Society.
9. Any person contributing Five Hundred Dollars at one time to the permanent fund shall be entitled "Patron of the Society."
